Annual Index: vol. 36/2005

Titles:

A comparison of aggressive and DUI crashes. Cook, L. J., Knight, S., & Olson, L. M. 36(5), 491–493.

A note from the Editor. Lin, M. -L. 36(5), 459.

A research model—forecasting incident rates from optimized safety program intervention strategies. Iyer, P. S., Haight, J. M., Del Castillo, E., Tink, B. W., & Hawkins, P. W. 36(4), 341–351.

Advantages and disadvantages of different crash modeling techniques. Sando, T., Mussa, R., Sobanjo, J., & Spainhour, L. 36(5), 485–487.

An empirical investigation of safety climate in container terminal operators. Lu, C. -S., & Shang, K. -c. 36(3), 297–308.

An evaluation of the effectiveness of a baby walker safety standard to prevent stair-fall injuries. Rodgers, G. B., & Leland, E. W. 36(4), 327–332.

An overview to CERSSO's self evaluation of the cost-benefit on the investment in occupational safety and health in the textile factories: "A step by step methodology." Amador-Rodezno, R. 36(3), 215–229.

Analysis of non-fatal and fatal injury rates for mine operator and contractor employees and the influence of work location. Karra, V. K. 36(5), 413–421.

Applying user feedback to improve data access and usability: Massachusetts beta test results. Rothenberg, H. A., Knodler, M., & Riessman, R. 36(5), 469–471.

Approaches to understanding young driver risk taking. Rhodes, N., Brown, D., & Edison, A. 36(5), 497–499.

Backseat safety belt use and crash outcome. Zhu, M., Hardman, S. B., & Cook, L. J. 36(5), 505–507.

Characteristics of worker accidents on NYSDOT construction projects. Mohan, S., & Zech, W. C. 36(4), 353–360.

Computer simulations help determine safe vertical boom speeds for roof bolting in underground coal mines. Ambrose, D. H., Bartels, J. R., Kwitowski, A. J., Gallagher, S., & Battenhouse, T. R. Jr. 36(4), 387–397.

Connecticut statewide sTEP wave evaluation. Geary, L. L., Ledingham, K. A., & Maloney, S. C. 36(4), 333–340.

Crash data and signal coordination: A one-way pair case study. Tindale, S. A., & Hsu, P. (Peter). 36(5), 481–482.

Data mining of tree-based models to analyze freeway accident frequency. Chang, L. -Y., & Chen, W. -C. 36(4), 365–375.

Development and implementation of a driver safety history indicator into the roadside inspection selection system. Lantz, B., & Loftus, J. 36(5), 489–490.

Development of a statewide highway safety data warehouse: Massachusetts data warehouse and web-based access. Rothenberg, H. A., Riessman, R., & Flatten, D. 36(5), 465–467.

Effect on fatality risk of changing from secondary to primary seat belt enforcement. Farmer, C. M., & Williams, A. F. 36(2), 189–194.

Effects of two doses of methylphenidate on simulator driving performance in adults with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. Barkley, R. A., Murphy, K. R., O'Connell, T., & Connor, D. F. 36(2), 121–131.

Evaluation of the Reading, PA nighttime safety belt enforcement campaign: September 2004. Chaudhary, N. K., Alonge, M., & Preusser, D. F. 36(4), 321–326.

Examining legal rules to protect children from injuries in recreational and sport activities. Centner, T. J. 36(1), 1–7.

Falls among older adults—risk factors and prevention strategies. Stevens, J. A. 36(4), 409–411.

Foreword. Eijkemans, G., & Fingerhut, M. 36(3), 207–208.

Freight transport and non-driving work duties as predictors of falling asleep at the wheel in urban areas of Crete. Tzamalouka, G., Papadakaki, M., & Chliaoutakis, J. E. 36(1), 75–84.

Graduated driver licensing research in 2004 and 2005. Hedlund, J., & Compton, R. 36(2), 109–119.

Homeland security, car crashes and traffic incident data: Killing three birds with one IT architecture. Woodhall, J. 36(5), 461–463.

doi:10.1016/S0022-4375(05)00118-0

Household youth on minority operated farms in the United States, 2000: Exposures to and injuries from work, horses, ATVs and tractors. Hendricks, K. J., Myers, J. R., Layne, L. A., & Goldcamp, E. M. 36(2), 149–157.
Identifying best practices states in motorcycle rider education and licensing. Baldi, S., Baer, J. D., & Cook, A. L. 36(1), 19–32.
Identifying crash propensity using specific traffic speed conditions. Abdel-Aty, M., & Pande, A. 36(1), 97–108.
Incidence rates and risk factors for injury events in high school students in Lijin County, China. Jia, C., Zhao, Z., Bo, Q., Zhang, Y., & Liu, Z. 36(2), 133–137.
Injury severity codes: A comparison of police injury codes and medical outcomes as determined by NASS CDS Investigators. Compton, C. P. 36(5), 483–484.
Is road rage increasing? Results of a repeated survey. Smart, R. G., Mann, R. E., Zhao, J., Stoduto, G. 36(2), 195–201.
Management commitment to safety as organizational support: Relationships with non-safety outcomes in wood manufacturing employees. Michael, J. H., Evans, D. D., Jansen, K. J., & Haight, J. M. 36(2), 171–179.
Net-cost model for workplace interventions. Lahiri, S., Gold, J., & Levenstein, C. 36(3), 241–255.
Non-fatal transportation injuries among women: Differences in injury patterns and severity by age. Dellinger, A. M. 36(2), 203–206.
On the joint valuation of averting fatal and severe injuries in highway accidents. Hojman, P., de Dios Ortuzar, J., & Rizzi, L. I. 36(4), 377–386.
Optimal strategies for adaptive curve lighting. Sivak, M., Schoettle, B., Flannagan, M. J., & Minoda, T. 36(3), 281–288.
Parental risk perceptions of childhood pedestrian road safety: A cross cultural comparison. Lam, L. T. 36(2), 181–187.
Participation for understanding: An interactive method. Koningsveld, E. A. P. 36(3), 231–236.
Physical limitations and musculoskeletal complaints associated with work in unusual or restricted postures: A literature review. Gallagher, S. 36(1), 51–61.
Probationary and non-probationary drivers' nighttime crashes in Western Australia, 1996–2000. Adams, C. 36(1), 33–37.
Recidivism study of New Mexico's convicted DWI offenders 2000–2003. Harmon, J. S., & Woods, B. 36(5), 495–496.
Road safety effects of roundabouts in Flanders. De Brabander, B., Nuyts, E., & Vereeck, L. 36(3), 289–296.
Safety conscious planning in small and medium-sized MPOs and rural planning agencies: Results of a domestic scan. Herbel, S. B. 36(5), 473–475.
Safety halls—an evaluation. Nyberg, A., Gregersen, N. P., Nolén, S., & Engström, I. 36(5), 429–439.
Safety rules and regulations on mine sites – The problem and a solution. Laurence, D. 36(1), 39–50.
Safety-culture in a Norwegian shipping company. Håvold, J. I. 36(5), 441–458.
Suicides and other fatalities from train-person collisions on Swedish railroads: A descriptive epidemiologic analysis as a basis for systems-oriented prevention. Rådbo, H., Svedung, I., & Andersson, R. 36(5), 423–428.
Synthesis and recommendations of the economic evaluation of OHS interventions at the company level conference. Biddle, E., Ray, T., Owusu-Edusei, K. Jr., & Camm, T. 36(3), 261–267.
The crash severity impacts of fixed roadside objects. Holdridge, J. M., Shankar, V. N., & Ulfarsson, G. F. 36(2), 139–147.
The development of an instrument measuring unintentional injuries in young children in low-income settings to serve as an evaluation tool for a childhood home injury prevention program. Jordaan, E. R., Atkins, S., van Niekerk, A., & Seedat, M. 36(3), 269–280.
The impact of a nationwide effort to reduce airbag-related deaths among children: An examination of fatality trends among younger and older age groups. Nichols, J. L., Glassbrenner, D., & Compton, R. P. 36(4), 309–320.
The older driver with dementia: An updated literature review. Adler, G., Rottunda, S., & Dysken, M. 36(4), 399–407.
The potential-method—an economic evaluation tool. Bergström, M. 36(3), 237–240.
The prediction of safe lifting behavior: An application of the theory of planned behavior. Johnson, S. E., & Hall, A. 36(1), 63–73.
The Productivity Assessment Tool: Computer-based cost benefit analysis model for the economic assessment of occupational health and safety interventions in the workplace. Oxenburgh, M., & Marlow, P. 36(3), 209–214.
The relationship between protective and risk characteristics of acting and experienced workload, and musculoskeletal disorder cases among nurses. Yeung, S. S., Genaidy, A., Deddens, J., & Sauter, S. 36(1), 85–95.
The risks of driving on roadways with 50 miles per hour posted speed limit. Dhungana, P., & Qu, M. 36(5), 501–504.
The role of sales of new motorcycles in a recent increase in motorcycle mortality rates. Paulozzi, L. J. 36(4), 361–364.
Understanding the return on health, safety and environmental investments. Linhard, J. B. 36(3), 257–260.
Using GIS for law enforcement. Smith, R., Graettinger, A. J., Keith, K., Hudnall, M., & Parrish, A. 36(5), 477–479.
Using persuasive messages to encourage voluntary hearing protection among coal miners. Stephenson, M. T., Witte, K., Vaught, C., Quick, B. L., Booth-Butterfield, S., Patel, D., & Zuckerman, C. 36(1), 9–17.
Work domain analysis for air traffic controller weather displays. Ahlstrom, U. 36(2), 159–169.
